Dispute Resolution & Litigation

”Have I got a case? Have they?”

Sometimes commercial disputes are unavoidable and they can result in the destruction of a business and relationships.

Once involved in a dispute it can be impossible to take an objective view and that is where Eatons can assist. Eatons can give you an accurate assessment of your position and your rights. With the help of Eatons’ team who specialise in the field of dispute resolution, conflicts can be managed and resolved.

About Your Business

#3

Company Framework Business Law Experts

Legal frameworks support a business anticipating and preparing for changes in that company and the people who run it. Eatons are experts in drafting agreements and documents to protect you, your partners and your shareholders from any eventuality and help to lay down procedures to avoid the damage of possible disputes.

Contracts & Agreements Business, Company and Commercial Law

For those in business, contracts are an important part of your life both when you start the business and as it grows and develops. Eatons' legal team will ensure that any agreements or contracts you undertake are in your best interests and the interests of your business.

Employment & Personnel Employment law is a constantly evolving area

This means all businesses must ensure they are up to date with their obligations to their employees. These obligations cover a range of areas including race, sex and disability issues, parental and maternity rights, disciplinary action and dismissals.

Debt Recovery / Credit Control Debt Recovery and Credit Control.

We have many long-term clients who have found it more cost effective to place their debt recovery operations with Eatons. Getting your debtors to pay their bills can be difficult and time consuming but it is a task all businesses have to confront at some point.

Mergers, MBOs & Acquisitions Changes to the company management structure

Eatons provide a wide range of commercial services to a variety of corporate and institutional clients. We advise both buyers and sellers on a range of transactions both local, national and international.

Health & Safety Health and Safety must be considered at all times

Eatons offer a wide range of Health and Safety related services to help you manage these important areas of your business through our specialist department. It is the case that all employers with five or more employees must have written policies, procedures, arrangements and risk assessments in place to address Health and Safety in the workplace.

Intellectual Property/ Information Technology Eatons IP/IT Department

A company's intellectual property and information technology can often be its most valuable asset and needs protecting accordingly. Eatons can advise you on what your rights are, how they should be protected by registration and how they can be exploited by licensing, co-ownership and sale.

“Nothing is too much trouble, as soon as we tell them about a problem they jump on it.”
